Practice all lines for your gender, and practice speaking at different age levels.

FRIEDRICH: I'm Friedrich. I'm fourteen. I'm a boy.

KURT: Brigitta, you mustn't say a thing like that. If I did think so, I wouldn't say so. I'm Kurt, I'm eleven — almost.

GRETEL: I've got a sore finger. Isn't Fraulein Maria coming back?

MARTA: I'm Marta and I'm going to be seven on Tuesday and I'd like a pink parasol.

BRIGITTA: I'm Brigitta. She's Louisa and she's thirteen years old, and you're smart. I'm nine and I think your dress is the ugliest one I ever saw.

LOUISA: You mean you don't know anything about being a governess? Well, the first thing you have to do is to tell Father to mind his own business.

BRIGITTA: Remember the other night when we were all sitting on the floor singing the Edelweiss song he taught us? After we finished, you laughed at him for forgetting the words. He didn't forget the words. He just stopped singing to look at you. And when he speaks to you, the way his voice sounds — And the way you looked at him just now when you were dancing. You're in love with him.
